More information about "Accessibility at Western" is available at: <http://accessibility.uwo.ca>

2. Calendar Description

2.1 Course Description:

This course presents comparative and critical analyses of legislative, policy and practical responses to gender-based inequality and other forms of systemic discrimination in the Canadian workplace. It also offers theoretical and problem-solving tools for diagnosing workplace inequity and developing effective solutions to this persistent problem.

3 lecture hours, 0.5 course

Antirequisite(s): Women's Studies 2251F/G

Prerequisite(s): Enrolment in 3rd or 4th year of BMOS or special permission

2.2 Senate Regulations

Senate Regulations state, "unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites."

This regulation is in regards to the COURSES required. Students not in BMOS are permitted to enroll in up to 1.0 MOS courses, as per the Academic Timetable.

3. Textbook

CUSTOM COURSE MATERIALS (CCM) to be purchased from the UWO Book Store.

4. Course Objective and Format

The DAN Department of Management and Organizational Studies as a whole draws upon an evidence-based management approach. Evidence-based management is the systematic process of gathering evidence from multiple sources, critically appraising the evidence, and using that evidence in making and evaluating management decisions to improve organizational performance.

4.1 Course objective

To recognize, understand and address the systemic and cultural causes and consequences of workplace inequities.

4.2 Course format

This is an on-line (computer-mediated) course offered by the DAN Management and Organizational Studies Program, Faculty of Social Science, Office of the Registrar.

5. Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- identify, assess and diagnose forms of discrimination and inequality experienced by women and other designated groups in the Canadian workplace;
- critically appraise and evaluate various legislative and policy approaches and practical solutions and their implications to workplace inequality and discrimination in the current Canadian workplace;
- undertake field/library research to formulate and produce a critical appraisal of theoretical and practical remedies to workplace discrimination and inequality and;
- present illustrations, reflections and summaries of applied learning in a computer mediated environment.

6. Evaluation

Participation:

On-line contribution to learning: 20%

Continuous: there will be a participation “check-in” during week 7.

Written Assignments:

Essay proposal: 10% - Due at the end of week 4.

Essay: 30% - Due at the end of week 8.

Final Exam:

Three Hours; Essay Format: 40%

Participation = 20%

Proposal = 10%

Essay = 30

Exam = 40%

Total = 100%

PARTICIPATION (on-line contributions):

The instructor's assessment of each student's level of participation will be based on the:

- regular and timely contribution to on-line discussions, which provide evidence that students have read the assigned readings;
- extent to which contributions reflect the student's ability to comprehend and apply the assigned material;
- the extent to which students engage in online discussions with their classmates and;
- students' contributions of current and relevant information and resources.

There is more information about expectations for participation on the course web site.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

The written assignments will be 1) a 2 page essay proposal and 2) an 8 to 10 page analytical essay.

1) The essay proposal should be approximately 2 pages in length, typed, double-spaced and in complete sentences with at least five current and preferably Canadian references attached. The proposal is due at the end of week 4. Students will be asked to decide on an essay topic by the third week and to post it on the course website.

2) The essay is due at the end of week 8. It should be 8-10 pages in length and in APA or another recognized format.

The analytical essay will be an 8 to 10 page paper that:

- identifies and diagnoses a form of discrimination and/or inequality experienced by women and/or other designated groups in the Canadian workplace;
- utilizes field/library research to formulate a potential and/or practical solution to the form of discrimination/inequality as identified
- demonstrates an analysis of a workplace issue by applying the frameworks explored in the course, and which is based on review of theoretical perspectives and research evidence and;
- offers a critical appraisal or evaluation of a legislative, policy or practical solution, and its implications to workplace inequality and/or discrimination.

Suggestions for topics and guidelines for the essay will be discussed on-line beginning in Week Two of the course. Students will be expected to select an essay topic no later than Week Three and will be asked to post their essay topic on the course site.

Essays must be submitted in hard copy, (printed on paper with a title page that includes your name and student number, and a separate references or works cited page), to the Distance Studies Office (Room 2140 WSSB). You may also submit it by fax to: 519-661-3388

The ESSAY must ALSO be submitted to Turnitin.com via the ASSIGNMENTS link on the course site.

PLEASE NOTE: Papers will not be accepted after the due date except in the case of serious illness or other emergencies - for which documentation is required. Assignments that are late for any other reason will be penalized - 10% per day. More information is available on the course web site.

ESSAYS ARE DUE ON FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 2020 BY 4:00 P.M.

FINAL EXAM

The final exam will be a three-hour, closed book, essay format exam that will cover the content of the entire course. The exam will consist of at least six essay questions of which students are required to respond to three. Each response should be at least 600 words in length and written legibly on every other line. The exam is closed book. The exam will be scheduled during the exam period.

Students will participate in the development of exam questions and be apprised of potential exam questions in advance of the final exam. Details will be discussed during the final weeks of the course, and potential examination questions and areas of inquiry will be noted or discussed throughout the course.

Exams will not be returned to students but may be reviewed in the instructor's office.

Please remember:

- To bring student identification to the exam.
- That nothing is to be on/at one's desk during an exam except a pen, pencil, an eraser, and the individual's student card.
- To not bring music players, cell phones, beepers, or other electronic devices to exams.
- That dictionaries or other aids are NOT allowed into the exam room.
- That no exam materials may be removed from the exam room.

The FINAL exam is in ESSAY format. The exam will be scheduled for THREE hours, consist of 6 questions of which you will be required to respond to three. The exam is a closed book and dictionaries or notes are NOT allowed.

Electronic devices of any kind (including cell phones, smart watches and calculators) are NOT permitted at the exam.

Students are responsible for material covered in the lectures as well as the assigned chapters/sections in the text.

Students are REQUIRED TO COMPLETE ALL COMPONENTS of this course. There are no exceptions to this. Extra assignments to improve grades will NOT be allowed.

Grades will not be adjusted on the basis of need. It is important to monitor your performance in the course. Remember: You are responsible for your grades in this course.

The DAN Program has a grade policy which states that for courses in the 3000-4000 range, the class average must fall between 70% and 75% for all sections of a course taught by the same instructor. In very exceptional circumstances only, class averages outside this range may be approved by the Undergraduate Chair or Chair. Class averages are not grounds for appeal.

NOTE: This course has been approved for exemption by the Dean from the 15% prior to the drop deadline policy.

FINAL EXAM: The final exam will be held during the examination period. The date, time and location of the exam will be posted on the course site as soon as it is available.

Please Note: Students are responsible for material covered in the on-line lectures as well as the assigned chapters/sections in the readings.

8. Student Responsibilities

Students should familiarize themselves with Western University Senate Regulations, please see: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/index.html.

Material covered in lectures will not always be the same as material covered in the reading package. These two sources should be viewed as complimentary and not redundant. As such, students who want to do well in this course are strongly encouraged to participate on the course site on a regular basis.

8.1 Respect

Please act respectfully towards the classroom, the Professor and your fellow students. Acting respectfully provides a better learning experience for everyone. Please see more information on the course site.

8.2 No Recording of Classes

Students are not permitted to reproduce any portion of a class, audio or video, without the prior written permission of the professor.

8.3 Copyright Notice

Lectures and course materials, including power point presentations, outlines, and similar materials, are protected by copyright. You may take notes and make copies of course materials for your own educational use. You may not reproduce (or allow others to reproduce), post or distribute lecture notes, wiki material, and other course materials publicly and/or for commercial purposes without written consent of the professor.

9. Exam Policies

- Bring student identification to exams.
- Nothing is to be on/at one's desk during an exam except a pencil, an eraser, and the individual's student card.
- Do not wear baseball caps to exams.
- Do not bring music players, cell phones, or other electronic devices to exams.
- To ensure fairness to all students, questions will not be answered during exams.

10. E-mail Policies

The following policies apply to all emails between students and the Professor. Please respect the fact that the Professor receives hundreds of emails from students and must deal with those emails in a fair and organized manner. Unacceptable emails will receive a reply saying only "Please see Email Policies on the course outline".

10.1 UWO.CA Email Addresses Only

For privacy reasons, students must use their Western email accounts to contact the Professor. The Professor will not respond to emails from non-uwo.ca addresses (e.g. hotmail.com, gmail.com, etc.).

10.2 Subject Line Must Include Course and Section Number

The subject line of emails must contain the name or number of the course, and the section number in which the student is enrolled. The Professor teaches different courses and sections and cannot properly respond to questions if he does not know which course or section you are enrolled in.

10.3 Acceptable Emails

- questions about the course content or materials
- asking to set up an appointment to ask questions or review an exam
- notification of illness or other special circumstances
- providing constructive comments or feedback about the course

10.4 Unacceptable Emails

- questions that may be answered on OWL or on this course outline
- asking when grades will be posted
- asking what grade a student received
- asking where or when an exam is scheduled or the material covered on an exam
- requests for grade increases, extra assignments, or reweighting of course components

Students are strongly encouraged to use the MESSAGES tool on the OWL course site to correspond with the professor.

11. Attendance

It is expected that students will attend all classes.

11.1 Short Absences.

If you miss a class due to minor illness or other problems, check your course outlines for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing an assignment or an exam. Cover any readings and visit the course website as soon as possible to keep up with the course content.

11.2 Extended Absences.

If you are absent more than approximately two weeks or if you get too far behind to catch up, you should consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses. The Academic Counsellors can help you to consider the alternatives. At your request, they can also keep your instructors informed about your difficulties.

12. Grade Fairness

Fairness requires that all students be treated equally and be evaluated using the criteria set out in this course outline. The evaluation criteria are based on actual achievement and not on how hard a student has tried.

Claims by students of an excellent academic history, good attendance record, need to obtain or maintain a scholarship, desire to be admitted to Ivey or graduate school, or other personal issues, cannot be used to justify a higher grade in the course or a reweighting of course components. There is no extra work or assignments available for extra credit or to “make up” for a course component that was missed or performed poorly.

13. Posting of Grades

Assignment grades will be posted on OWL once the grades are available. Final exam grades and final course grades are not posted on OWL and are available once they have been posted by the Registrar under “Academic Summary” at the Student Centre website.

14. University Policy Regarding Illness

14.1 Illness

For details on University Policy and student responsibilities go to:

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/Academic_Consideration_for_absences.pdf

Students who experience an extenuating circumstance (illness, injury, or other extenuating circumstance) sufficiently significant to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

- i. Submitting a Self-Reported Absence form provided that the conditions for submission are met (maximum of 2 from September to April, valid for 48 hours or less, on course work worth less than 30%); or
- ii. For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) : https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner in order to be eligible for Academic Consideration; or
- iii. For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to Academic Counselling in order to be eligible for academic consideration. Students are encouraged to contact their Academic Counselling unit to clarify what documentation is appropriate.

Students seeking academic consideration:

- are advised to consider carefully the implications of postponing tests or midterm exams or delaying handing in work;
- are encouraged to make appropriate decisions based on their specific circumstances, recognizing that minor ailments (upset stomach) or upsets (argument with a friend) are not an appropriate basis for a self-reported absence;
- must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by either the self-reported absence or SMC, or immediately upon their return following a documented absence.

14.2 Make Up Examinations

The student must write a make-up exam if the regularly scheduled exam is missed for reasons for which adequate documentation is received by the instructor (this documentation must be supplied by the Academic Counseling office).

The date and time of the make-up examination will be set by the instructor, who will communicate the date to the student.

If a student is unable to meet the scheduled make-up as agreed, then the student is responsible for obtaining new accommodations from Academic Counselling, and seeking a new make-up date with the instructor within a reasonable time frame.

15. University Policy on Cheating and Academic Misconduct

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offenses. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offenses in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offenses include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate, consult your instructor. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" will not be accepted as an excuse.

A copy of guidelines about how to avoid cheating can be obtained from the office of the Ombudsperson, Room 3135 WSSB, (519) 661-3573, ombuds@uwo.ca.

Cheating on exams will not be tolerated; students are referred to the university policy on scholastic offenses. Looking at the test of another student, allowing another student to view your exam, or obtaining information about a test in advance are all examples of cheating.

Students found cheating will receive a zero (0%) on that exam. A number of safeguards will be employed to discourage cheating. For example, examination supervisors (proctors) of the tests may ask students to move to another seat during the exam, cover their paper, avert their eyes from other students' papers, remove baseball caps, etc. This is not meant as a personal affront nor as an accusation of cheating, rather as vigilant attempts at proctoring.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offense include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

16. Procedures For Appealing Academic Evaluations

1. In the first instance, all appeals of a grade must be made to the course instructor (informal consultation).
2. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal must be sent to the Undergraduate Chair: Student Affairs of the Department of Management and Organizational Studies.
3. If the response of the Undergraduate Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, he/she may then appeal to the Dean of the Faculty in which the course of program was taken.
4. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office.

17. Support Services

17.1 Support Services

The Registrar's office can be accessed for Student Support Services at <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca>
Student Support Services (including the services provided by the USC listed here) can be reached at: <http://westernusc.ca/services/>

Student Development Services can be reached at: <http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/>

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental_health/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

17.2 Academic Concerns.

If you are in academic difficulty, it is strongly recommended that you see your academic counsellor.
