3. Textbook

Catano, V., Wiesner, W., & Hackett, R. (2019). Recruitment and Selection in Canada (7th ed.). Toronto, ON: NelsonEducation. [ISBN: 0176764666; 9780176764661]

The textbook referenced above is required. There is no need to bring the textbook to lectures, unless you would like to have it there as an additional reference. Instead, please bring a copy of the lecture slides to each lecture, either in hard-copy form or on your computer. The lecture slides will be made available to you through the course site on OWL prior to each lecture. Please note that the lecture slides posted on OWL will be abbreviated.

4. Course Objectives and Format

The DAN Department of Management and Organizational Studies as a whole draws upon an evidence-based management approach. Evidence-based management is the systematic process of gathering evidence from multiple sources, critically appraising the evidence, and using that evidence in making and evaluating management decisions to improve organizational performance.

4.1 Course objectives

This course provides a systematic examination of choices that confront managers in Canada who wish to implement effective human resource recruitment and selection strategies and activities. These choices are presented through introduction to the concepts within the human resources management context as well as the organizational context.

4.2 Course format

The course format will consist of lectures. There are no labs or tutorials. Material covered in lectures will not always be the same as material covered in the textbook. These two sources should be viewed as complementary and not redundant. As such, students who want to do well in this course are strongly encouraged to attend lectures on a regular basis. If students miss a lecture for any reason, it is their responsibility to catch up.

5. Learning Outcomes

- Describe the role and activities of human resources management in facilitating the steps required for recruitment and selection of human resources in organizations. This includes an evidence based approach to formulating decisions, recommending plans of action that effectively link such HR policies to business objectives to improve performance, and measuring the impact of human resources management.
- Define, describe, compare, and contrast key terms, theories, concepts, approaches, models and tools relevant to the human resource recruitment and selection process across Canadian workplaces.
- Synthesize and critically assess the extent to which various recruitment and selection practices and associated activities (such as job and competency analysis, performance measurement, recruitment methods, applicant screening, testing and other assessments, and decision making) are based on professional standards of reliability and validity, and implemented in an effective and ethical manner.
- Recognize how legislation, technology, changing economic conditions, labour force dynamics, and other external factors influence personnel recruitment and selection practices.

6. Evaluation

6.1 Exams (80%)

There are two exams in this course:

Exam 1	(Monday, February 10; 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.)	= 35%
Exam 2	(to be scheduled during the April exam period)	= 45%

Exams are multiple-choice in format. Each exam, in total, will be scheduled for 2 hours, and will be a closed book examination. Exam 1 will consist of 60 questions and Exam 2 will consist of 90 questions. Neither exam is cumulative. Dictionaries are NOT allowed into the examinations.

Electronic devices of any kind (including cell phones, smart watches and calculators) are NOT permitted at exams.

Students are responsible for material covered in the lectures as well as the assigned chapters/sections in the text. Exams 1 will be written during class time. Exam 2 will be scheduled during the final exam period. Exams will not be returned to students but may be reviewed in the instructor's office.

Exams will be scored using the program ScanExam which examines the answer sheets for unusual coincidences in the pattern of answers given which may be indicative and used as supporting evidence of cheating.

Grades will not be adjusted on the basis of need. It is important to monitor your performance in the course. Remember: You are responsible for your grades in this course.

The DAN Department has a grade policy which states that for courses in the 3000-level range, the class average must fall between 70% and 77% for all sections of a course taught by the same instructor. In very exceptional circumstances only, class averages outside this range may be approved by the Undergraduate Chair or Chair. Class averages are not grounds for appeal.

6.2 Group Presentation (20%)

Working in groups of 4-5, students will prepare a presentation on a topic relevant to personnel recruitment and selection in Canada of their own choosing. No two groups will be permitted to present on the same topic. If more than one group selects the same topic, it will be assigned on a "first come, first served" basis.

Presentations will be held in-class during two sessions of the course: Monday, March 9, and Monday, March 16. Groups will have 10 minutes to deliver their presentation to the class, followed by a 5-minute question/answer period. All groups are required to develop PowerPoint slides to accompany their presentation. Other audiovisual aids and/or interactive elements that make the presentation more engaging are also welcome but not mandatory.

All group members are expected to contribute equally to all stages of the group presentation (topic selection, research, content development, slide development, presentation delivery). Any group members who are absent from their presentation without a compelling reason, as supported by Academic Counselling, will receive a mark of zero on the group presentation. Failure to contribute fully in preparation for the group presentation, as indicated through peer evaluations, may also result in a lower presentation grade for individual group members.

Marking keys and additional details about the group presentation will be made available on OWL and in class.

Peer Evaluation

To ensure that all groups members contribute fairly and equally to the group presentation, peer evaluations will be completed and submitted by each member of every group. In these evaluations, each group member will grade all members of their group on their contribution to various stages of the presentation development. These evaluations may result in deductions being made to individual group members' presentation grade in the instance of poor contribution. All peer evaluations will be kept confidential.

The following benchmarks will be used in determining whether a student receives a deduction from the presentation grade earned by the group on the basis of peer evaluations.

Peer evaluation average of 80% or greater	= no deduction
Peer evaluation average of 50% - 79%	= -25% of the group presentation grade
Peer evaluation average of 10% - 49%	= -50% of the group presentation grade
Peer evaluation average of 9% or less	= -100% of the group presentation grade

Students are encouraged to keep all correspondence related to the completion of the group presentation in case evidence of minimal participation or no participation is required.

Key Dates for Group Presentation

Monday, January 20, 4:00 p.m.

Submit the names of all members in your group (4-5 members), and your preferred presentation date (March 9 or March 16) to your instructor via e-mail. Presentation dates will be assigned on a "first-come, first-served" basis. Students who are not a member of a group by the deadline will be arbitrarily grouped or added to an existing group.

Monday, January 27, 4:00 p.m.

Post your selected presentation topic on the OWL forums. Only one member of each group should post the topic selection. In doing so, please ensure that your topic has not already been selected. If your topic is selected, you must choose a different topic. The instructor must approve your selected topic before you begin developing your presentation.

Monday, March 9, 1:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Groups assigned to present on this day will deliver their presentation to the class. Students not presenting are expected to attend, and to ask questions.

Monday, March 16, 1:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Groups assigned to present on this day will deliver their presentation to the class. Students not presenting are expected to attend, and to ask questions.

Monday, March 23, 4:00 p.m.

Each member of your group should independently complete and submit a peer evaluation form via OWL. Submission of this form is mandatory. Peer evaluation forms will be made available on OWL.

Students are REQUIRED TO COMPLETE ALL COMPONENTS of this course. There are no exceptions to this requirement. Extra assignments to improve grades will NOT be allowed.

7. Lecture and Examination Schedule

Please refer to the lecture and examination schedule posted on OWL.

8. Student Responsibilities

For Students should familiarize themselves with Western University Senate Regulations, please see: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/index.html.

Material covered in lectures will not always be the same as material covered in the textbook. These two sources should be viewed as complimentary and not redundant. As such, students who want to do well in this course are strongly encouraged to attend lectures on a regular basis. Please note that the instructor will not be providing copies of lectures notes or overheads. Therefore, if you miss a lecture, you should try to obtain this material from another student.

8.1 Respect

Please act respectfully towards the classroom, the Professor and your fellow students. Acting respectfully means arriving on time, turning off phones, avoiding private discussions during lectures, refraining from viewing non-course material on your laptops, and cleaning up after yourself. Acting respectfully provides a better learning experience for everyone.

Private in-class discussions are distracting to students and the Professor. If other students are distracting your attention from the material, you should ask them to be quiet. If you feel uncomfortable doing this (or the problem persists), please see the instructor.

Late arrivals are also distracting. Please try to arrive on time for classes.

8.2 No Recording of Classes

Students are not permitted to record any portion of a class, audio or video, without the prior written permission of the professor.

8.3 Copyright Notice

Lectures and course materials, including power point presentations, outlines, and similar materials, are protected by copyright. You may take notes and make copies of course materials for your own educational use. You may not record lectures, reproduce (or allow others to reproduce), post or distribute lecture notes, wiki material, and other course materials publicly and/or for commercial purposes without my written consent.

9. Exam Policies

- Bring student identification to exams.
- Nothing is to be on/at one's desk during an exam except a pencil, an eraser, and the individual's student card.
- Do not wear baseball caps to exams.
- Do not bring music players, cell phones, or other electronic devices to exams.
- To ensure fairness to all students, questions will not be answered during exams.

10. E-mail Policies

The following policies apply to all emails between students and the Professor. Please respect the fact that the Professor receives hundreds of emails from students and must deal with those emails in a fair and organized manner. Unacceptable emails will receive a reply saying only "Please see Email Policies on the course outline".

10.1 UWO.CA Email Addresses Only

For privacy reasons, students must use their Western email accounts to contact the Professor. The Professor will not respond to emails from non-uwo.ca addresses (e.g. hotmail.com, gmail.com, etc.).

10.2 Subject Line Must Include Course and Section Number

The subject line of emails must contain the name or number of the course, and the section number in which the student is enrolled. The Professor teaches different courses and sections and cannot properly respond to questions if he does not know which course or section you are enrolled in.

10.3 Acceptable Emails

- questions about the course content or materials
- asking to set up an appointment to ask questions or review an exam
- notification of illness or other special circumstances
- providing constructive comments or feedback about the course

10.4 Unacceptable Emails

- questions that may be answered on OWL or on this course outline
- asking when grades will be posted
- asking what grade a student received
- asking where or when an exam is scheduled or the material covered on an exam
- requests for grade increases, extra assignments, or reweighting of course components

11. Attendance

It is expected that students will attend all classes. The professor does not provide access to lecture notes. Students are encouraged to obtain missed lecture notes from a fellow student.

11.1 Short Absences.

If you miss a class due to minor illness or other problems, check your course outlines for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or exam. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow the missed lectures notes from a classmate.

11.2 Extended Absences.

If you are absent more than approximately two weeks or if you get too far behind to catch up, you should consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses. The Academic Counsellors can help you to consider the alternatives. At your request, they can also keep your instructors informed about your difficulties.

12. Grade Fairness

Fairness requires that all students be treated equally and be evaluated using the criteria set out in this course outline. The evaluation criteria are based on actual achievement and not on how hard a student has tried.

Claims by students of an excellent academic history, good attendance record, need to obtain or maintain a scholarship, desire to be admitted to Ivey or graduate school, or other personal issues, cannot be used to justify a higher grade in the course or a reweighting of course components. There is no extra work or assignments available for extra credit or to “make up” for a course component that was missed or performed poorly.

13. Posting of Grades

Midterm exam grades will be posted on OWL once the grades are available. Final exam grades and final course grades are not posted on OWL and are available once they have been posted by the Registrar under “Academic Summary” at the Student Centre website.

14. University Policy Regarding Illness

14.1 Illness

For details on University Policy and student responsibilities go to:

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/Academic_Consideration_for_absences.pdf

Students who experience an extenuating circumstance (illness, injury, or other extenuating circumstance) sufficiently significant to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

- i. Submitting a Self-Reported Absence form provided that the conditions for submission are met (maximum of 2 from September to April, valid for 48 hours or less, on course work worth less than 30%); or
- ii. For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) : https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner in order to be eligible for Academic Consideration; or
- iii. For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to Academic Counselling in order to be eligible for academic consideration. Students are encouraged to contact their Academic Counselling unit to clarify what documentation is appropriate.

Students seeking academic consideration:

- are advised to consider carefully the implications of postponing tests or midterm exams or delaying handing in work;
- are encouraged to make appropriate decisions based on their specific circumstances, recognizing that minor ailments (upset stomach) or upsets (argument with a friend) are not an appropriate basis for a self-reported absence;
- must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by either the self-reported absence or SMC, or immediately upon their return following a documented absence.

14.2 Make Up Examinations

The student must write a make-up exam if the regularly scheduled exam is missed for reasons for which adequate documentation is received by the instructor (this documentation must be supplied by the Academic Counseling office).

The date and time of the make-up examination will be set by the instructor, who will communicate the date to the student.

If a student is unable to meet the scheduled make-up as agreed, then the student is responsible for obtaining new accommodations from Academic Counselling, and seeking a new make-up date with the instructor within a reasonable time frame.

15. University Policy on Cheating and Academic Misconduct

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offenses. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offenses in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offenses include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate, consult your instructor. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" will not be accepted as an excuse.

A copy of guidelines about how to avoid cheating can be obtained from the office of the Ombudsperson, Room 3135 WSSB, (519) 661-3573, ombuds@uwo.ca.

Cheating on exams will not be tolerated; students are referred to the university policy on scholastic offenses. Looking at the test of another student, allowing another student to view your exam, or obtaining information about a test in advance are all examples of cheating.

Students found cheating will receive a zero (0%) on that exam. A number of safeguards will be employed to discourage cheating. For example, examination supervisors (proctors) of the tests may ask students to move to another seat during the exam, cover their paper, avert their eyes from other students' papers, remove baseball caps, etc. This is not meant as a personal affront nor as an accusation of cheating, rather as vigilant attempts at proctoring.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offense include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

16. Procedures for Appealing Academic Evaluations

1. In the first instance, all appeals of a grade must be made to the course instructor (informal consultation).
2. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal must be sent to the Undergraduate Chair: Student Affairs of the Department of Management and Organizational Studies.
3. If the response of the Undergraduate Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, he/she may then appeal to the Dean of the Faculty in which the course of program was taken.
4. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office.

17. Support Services

17.1 Support Services

The Registrar's office can be accessed for Student Support Services at <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca>

Student Support Services (including the services provided by the USC listed here) can be reached at: <http://westernusc.ca/services/>

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental_health/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

17.2 Academic Concerns.

If you are in academic difficulty, it is strongly recommended that you see your academic counsellor.
